THIS TRIBUTE BOOK IS DEDICATED TO

Ed Sopher

PRESIDENT, 2019 - 2024
B'NAI TORAH CONGREGATION

IN APPRECIATION OF YOUR FIVE YEARS OF DEDICATED SERVICE AND UNPARALLELED LEADERSHIP

Thank you, Ed!

You came to B'nai Torah newly retired
And you and Roseanne quickly became active and inspired.
You were regulars at classes, services and events
It was clear your love and appreciation for our community was immense.
It wasn't long before you received an ask
For the role of B'nai Torah president, you were up for the task.
But little did you know what would be in store
You experienced a presidency like never before.
In early 2020, just months after assuming the role
The Covid-19 pandemic took its toll.
The building was closed, our community in plight
In a time of such darkness, it was hard to see the light.
We all had to pivot to a new world unknown
Of bringing people together when apart and alone.
Under your leadership, we emerged stronger than ever
With a new appreciation of community and coming together.
We wrote a Torah, launched new programs and have record growth in our schools
And we're thriving and expanding unlike so many other shuls.
Please enjoy this book as a token of appreciation
B'nai Torah is a better place today because of your hard work and dedication.

Your B'nai Torah Friends & Family

Dear Ed,

When we moved to Florida eight years ago, we wanted to be part of a vibrant, Jewish community, and we found B'nai Torah. We never realized how the synagogue would enhance our lives during our retirement. I became active in Women's League, and you were asked to serve on the Synagogue Board. For two years we were both presidents at the same time! We stood together on the Bima holding a Torah at Kol Nidre Services. We were honored by Israel Bonds. In the Spring of 2020 we both had to deal with complications of the Covid pandemic, and helped the synagogue keep the community connected.

Here we are celebrating your tenure as President of B'nai Torah. You have worked tirelessly with the Clergy, Staff and Lay Leaders. You met challenges and enjoyed successes, always keeping the best interest of the synagogue in mind. Your diligent work, patience, and determination have brought you to this culminating point.

For five years you have been seated on the Bima for all Services. Now I will Gladly make room for you in my "Shabbat Row!"

Mazel Tov on your well deserved recognition.
I am so proud of your wonderful achievements.

Love,
Roseanne

Mazel Tov Dad (also known as Saba),

Not only did you encourage your daughters to dream big but their dreams became your dreams. As they grew up, you became an expert in all of their changing interests so you could support them – that meant lacing up ice skates, getting on school buses at 4 am to judge debate meets, attending dance recitals, improvising props in the kitchen to help them study for science tests, and reading every college brochure you got your hands on to help them find their perfect fit. Now, as Saba, you show the same encouragement to your grandkids, even chaperoning your grandson, with Magi, to the national elementary chess tournament.

It is of no surprise that when you became President of B'nai Torah, you completely devoted yourself to the role. You found ways to keep the community connected during the height of the pandemic, increased membership, and promoted education, a passion of yours.

We are so proud of the honor you are receiving from the synagogue community, and their recognition of your leadership, patience, strong work ethic, intelligence, and humor.

We are thrilled you (and Mom) have found such a meaningful and supportive “family” at B'nai Torah.

With all our love,
Jodie, Ben, Jack, Esmae, Michelle, Adam & Miles

Dear Ed,

We are grateful for all your gifts;
your contributions of time
and energy; your great care and dedication to our B'nai Torah Family.
