OCTOBER 7, 2023

In Memory

In memory of all those who have fallen victim to the terror in Israel on and since October 7, 2023.

Together, we honor their memories and sanctify their lives.

תהא נפשו/ה צרורה בצרור החיים

May their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life

In Proverbs we read: “The human spirit is the light of God.” Within each of us, God implants a divine spark. Each of us has the obligation to tend this spark and fan it into a flame that will light up one’s own life and the lives of others.

A lit candle can be snuffed out, or it can burn out, or it can kindle other candles. When the flame is passed on to others, the flame will continue to burn long after the original candle has been extinguished.

Yizkor will be recited on the following dates:

Yom Kippur

Thursday, October 2, 2025

Shemini Atzeret

Tuesday, October 14, 2025

Pesach

Thursday, April 9, 2026

Shavuot

Saturday, May 23, 2026

YIZKOR

We can cherish hopes, embrace values and perform deeds which death cannot destroy.

May we all be charitable in deed and in thought, in memory of those we love who walk the earth no longer.

May we live unselfishly, in truth and love and peace, so that we will be remembered as a blessing, as we this day lovingly remember those whose lives endure as a blessing.

Our generations are bound to each other as children now remember their parents. Love is strong as death as husbands and wives now remember their mates, as parents now remember their children. Memory conquers death's dominion as we now remembers our brothers and sisters, grandparents and other relatives and friends.

The death of those we now remember left gaping holes in our lives. But we are grateful for the gift of their lives. And we are strengthened by the blessing which they left us, by precious memories which comfort and sustain us as we recall them this day.

IN MEMORY OF RELATIVES AND FRIENDS

יִזְכֹּר אֱלֹהִים נַשְׁמוֹת קְרוֹבֵי וְרַעֲי שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם. הִנְנִי נוֹדֵר [נוֹדֵרֶת] צְדָקָה בְּעַד הַזְכָּרָת נַשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם. אֲנֵא תִהְיֶינָה נִפְשוֹתֵיהֶם צָרוּרוֹת בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים וְתִהְי מְנוּחָתָם כְּבוֹד, שְׁבַע שְׁמֵחוֹת אֶת-פָּנֶיךָ, נְעִימוֹת בִּימִינְךָ נִצַּח. אָמֵן.

May God remember the soul of _____ and of all relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of the gift of life and the many other gifts with which he blessed me.
May these moments of meditation link me more strongly with his memory and with our entire family. May he rest eternally in dignity and peace. Amen.

אֵל מָלֵא רַחֲמִים שׁוֹכֵן בְּמְרוֹמִים הַמַּצֵּא מְנוּחָה וְנוֹכָה תַּחַת
כּוֹנֵפִי הַשְׁכִּינָה בְּמַעְלוֹת קְדוּשִׁים וְטְהוֹרִים כְּזֹהֵר הָרָקִיעַ מְוַהֲרִים אֶת-נַשְׁמוֹת כָּל-אֵלֶּה שֶׁהִזְכְּרָנוּ הַיּוֹם לְבָרָכָה שֶׁהָלְכוּ לְעוֹלָמָם, בְּנֵן עֶדֶן תִּהְי מְנוּחָתָם. אֲנֵא בְּעַל הָרַחֲמִים, הַסֵּתִירָם בְּסֶתֶר כּוֹנֵפִיךָ לְעוֹלָמִים וְצָרָר בְּצָרוֹר הַחַיִּים אֶת-נַשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם. יְיָ הוּא נִחַלָתָם, וַיְנַחוּ בְּשָׁלוֹם עַל מִשְׁכְּבוֹתֵיהֶם. וְנֹאמֵר אָמֵן.

May God remember the soul of _____ and of all relatives and friends who have gone to their eternal home. In loving testimony to his life I pledge charity to help perpetuate ideals important
to him. Through such deeds, and through prayer and memory, is soul bound up in the bond of life. May I prove myself worthy of

FOR A GRANDMOTHER

My mother's mother died in the spring of her years, and her daughter forgot her face.
Her portrait , engraved on my grandfather's heart, was erased from the world of images when he died.

In the house, just her mirror remained,
sunk with age in its silver frame.
And I, the pale grandchild who does not resemble her, peer into it today as into a lake that hides its treasures underwater.

Deep behind my face,
I see a young woman- pink-cheeked, smiling,
a wig on her head- threading a long-looped earring through the tender flesh of her lobe.

Deep behind my face, shines the bright gold of her eyes.
And the mirror passes on the family lore:
She was very beautiful.

-LEA GOLDBERG (TRANSLATED BY MARCIA FALK)

FOR A GRANDFATHER

My grandfather was a farmer.
The day before he died
he planted a garden
A garden that nourished his family through the sunless season of mourning far into the golden season of harvest.

My grandfather was a farmer.
Before he died he planted a lifetime of seeds.
Diligently he planted honesty and reverence;

Inadvertently he planted gentleness and humor - Bounty enough to nourish me all the seasons of my life far into the planting season of my child.

-DANA SHUSTER

FOR A PARENT

Move to the front of the line a voice says. and suddenly there is nobody left standing between you and the world, to take the first blows on their shoulders.

This is the place in books where part one ends, and part two begins, and there is no part three.
The slate is wiped not clean but like a canvas painted over in white so that a whole new landscape must be started, bits of the old still showing underneath - those colors sadness lends to a certain hour of evening.

Now the line of light at the horizon is the hinge between earth and heaven, only visible a few moments as the sun drops its rusted padlock into place.

-LINDA PASTAN

FOR A SPOUSE/PARTNER

As long as I speak your name you are not dead as long as I think your pain I cannot grieve
the granite marker tells your name your age the bleak horizon scars the barren hedge as long as I, you are not dead.

-HANNAH KAHN

FOR A CHILD

I will never be able to stop my tears.
And the day is far off when I will Forget this cruel day.
Why could we not have died with him?
His little clothes still hang on his rack
His milk is still by his bed.
Overcome, it is as though life had left us.
We lie prostrate and insensible all day.
I am no longer young enough
To try and understand what has happened.
I was warned of it in a dream.
No medicine would have helped
Even if it had been heaped mountain high.
The disease took its course inexorable.
It would be better for me if I took A sword and cut open my bowels.
They are already cut to pieces with sorrow.
I realize what I'm doing
And try to come to myself again,
But I am exhausted and helpless,
Carried away by excess of sorrow.

-SU TUNG P'O

FOR A CHILD

In many houses
all at once
I see my mother and father and they are young as they walk in.

Why should my tears come,
to see them laughing?

That they cannot see me
is of no matter.

I was once their dream;
now they are mine.

FOR A SUICIDE

...transcripts of fog...

Speak your tattered Kaddish for all suicides:

Praise to life though it crumbled like a tunnel on ones we knew and loved

Praise to life though its windows blew shut on the breathing-room of ones we knew and loved

Praise to life though ones we knew and loved loved it badly, too well, and not enough

Praise to life though it tightened like a knot on the hearts of ones we thought we knew and loved

Praise to life giving room and reason to ones we knew and loved who felt unpraisable

Praise to them, how they loved it, when they could.

-ADRIENNE RICH

ON HEALING

I had thought that your death
Was a waste and a destruction,
A pain of grief hardly to be endured.
I am only beginning to learn
That your life was a gift and a growing
And a loving left with me.
The desperation of death
Destroyed the existence of love,
But the fact of death
Cannot destroy what has been given.
I am learning to look at your life again
Instead of your death and your departing.

-MARJORIE PIZER

MEMORIAL PRAYER FOR SERVICEMEN

Oh God full of compassion, grant perfect rest beneath the cover of Your Presence to all who have bravely laid down their lives for our country. Shelter them among the holy and pure, who are as radiant as the luminous firmament. Oh source of compassion, bring them ever near to You that their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life as are the souls of the righteous. And the work of righteousness shall be peace, and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever. Nation shall not lift up sword against nation; neither shall they learn war any more. Then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. Amen.
