SECURITY AT B'NAI TORAH

We continue to work with law enforcement to remain aware and prepared in the event of any credible security threat in our area. Our team remains vigilant in providing patrols inside and outside the building. Please be patient and cooperative upon entry through the gate and lobby security areas especially during peak traffic times or special events. ID's will be checked for guests who do not have a B'nai Torah car decal and all metal objects must be presented to the guard prior to walking through the metal detectors. All bags and purses are subject to search. B'nai Torah is now a participant in Palm Beach Sheriff's Office (PBSO) House of Worship (HOW), real-time alert program. B'nai Torah is deeply grateful to the Jewish Federation of South Palm Beach County for their generous support through the Community Security Grant, helping us upgrade to the latest security technology. Their partnership plays a vital role in keeping our community safe and secure.

Israel on Trial
*Examining the History,
the Evidence, and the Law*

Join us as we welcome Judge Roy K. Altman discussing his book Israel on Trial: Examining the History, the Evidence, and the Law, an instant NYTimes and USA Today bestseller.

Since October 7, Judge Altman has spoken to audiences across the country about Israel and the legal accusations increasingly made against the Jewish State. In Israel on Trial, he examines six of the most common claims, including genocide, occupation, and apartheid, using the same legal reasoning and judicial methodology he applies in the courtroom. With clarity, reason, and common sense, Judge Altman separates fact from rhetoric and explores how these accusations affect Israel and the Jewish people.
